

KELSO CITY COUNCIL
12:00 P.M.

July 19, 2019
SPECIAL MEETING

The Special Meeting of the Kelso City Council was called to order by Mayor Nancy Malone. Councilmembers in attendance were Jeffrey McAllister, Larry Alexander, Kim Lefebvre, Nancy Malone, Jim Hill and David Futcher. Councilmember Mike Karnofski was absent.

At 12:00 approximately the Council convened into executive session to be debriefed by the staff and community member panels. The executive session was expected to last approximately 50 minutes and no action would be taken. The City Attorney was not present.

At 12:50 approximately Council took a short break.

Executive session reconvened at 1:00 p.m. to begin Council interviews of perspective City Manager candidates. The executive session was expected to last approximately 2 ½ hours and no action would be taken. The City Attorney was not present.

At 3:30 approximately Council took a break until approximately 5:00 p.m.

At 5:06 p.m. Mayor Malone announced the Council would convene into regular session. Mayor Malone introduced the five candidates for the City Manager position. Each of the following candidates provided a brief presentation.

Sam Hughes, Vancouver WA
Adam Smee, Kalama WA
David Buchheit, Renton, WA
Andrew Hamilton, Longview, WA
Torie Brazitis, Bothell, WA

There being no further business, Mayor Malone adjourned the meeting at 5:22 p.m.

MAYOR

CITY CLERK